

News briefs

Simon Community fundraiser

A Swords-based architectural firm is taking place in a fundraising initiative for the Simon Communities of Ireland.

Whelan Corcoran Smith has agreed to participate in the fifth annual 'Simon Open Door' campaign organised by the Royal Institute of the Architects of Ireland (RIAI) and the Simon Communities of Ireland.

On Saturday, March 7th 2009, in exchange for a €75 donation to Simon, members of the public will get an opportunity to have a one-hour consultation with an architect.

This year the RIAI and the Simon Communities are hoping to raise €50,000 through the campaign, bringing the total raised since 2004 to €200,000.

All participating architects are giving their time for free and every cent raised will go directly to the Simon Communities of Ireland.

You can book a slot with their chosen architect via www.simonopendoor.ie.

Fingallians kids camp

Looking for something for the kids to do during the Easter Break, which is fast approaching.

Well why not register them for the Fingallians camp, which is always very popular.

This year it runs from April 6th to 9th.

Meanwhile, there are still places available at the nursery which takes place every Saturday at 10am.

Just drop down and register the budding sport stars.

Help for alcoholics

Do you have a problem with drink? Help is available. Saoirse Alcoholics Anonymous Group meets every Wednesday at 8pm at BASE in Brackenstown.

Phone 087-6206788 for more information on the group.

Book club

Swords Readers Uncovered/Junior Book Club meets on Thursday afternoons at 3.30pm at Swords Library. For further details contact 8404179.